

Nelson Osman Jeque is lawyer, member of the Bar Association of Mozambique since 2007. He holds a Law Degree from Eduardo Mondlane University in Mozambique, from which he also has a Master in Law in 2008.

He is lecturer for almost 15 years. Current he is teaching Civil Procedure at High Institute of Science and Technology of Mozambique- ISCTEM.

Mr. Jeque is PhD candidate in Law at University of Porto writing about Commercial Arbitration in Mozambique.

He started a professional career in 2004. Mr. Jeque served as consultant or legal adviser in Mozambique for Procredit Bank (2004-2006), Central Bank (2007-2008) and Confederation of Business Association (2007/8-2010). He then served, from 2011 to 2017, as advisor to the Minister of Industry and Trade in Mozambique (seconded by GIZ) covering mainly the legal reforms to enabling the business environment. In 2017 he moved to British American Tobacco Mozambique. Currently he is Head of Legal and External Affairs for Mozambique, Malawi, Lesotho and Eswatini.

Mr. Jeque also acts as arbitrator since 2007 at Centro de Arbitragem, Conciliação e Mediação (Arbitration, Conciliation and Mediation Centre) in more than 45 arbitrations. He speaks Portuguese, English and understands French.